

KENDALL COUNTY HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION

807 West John Street • Yorkville, IL • 60560
(630) 553-4141 Fax (630) 553-4179

The Historic Preservation Commission of Kendall County has been researching and locating the various cemeteries in the county as a part of the documentation of our heritage. Prior to the celebration of Memorial Day, we wanted to honor the service members that were buried in Kendall County.

The following is a copy of the Illinois Veterans' Commission Honor Roll for Kendall County from 1956. It includes names and burial sites of soldiers that served in the Civil War, the Spanish American War, World Wars 1 and 2, and the Korean War. It includes names of our ancestors, grandparents, and great grandparents that have come to rest in Kendall County after serving to protect our freedom.

Please understand this list was compiled almost 70 years ago, and its accuracy is assumed, but not guaranteed. Also, please know that access to some of the plots may not be available and some might be family sites on private property. Please respect their privacy. We have also found several cemeteries that have changed names over the years. Hopefully you will recognize a name and make it part of a conversation with someone who has knowledge of your family history.

Looking through the list, you will recognize so many familiar names, and realize how many of our ancestors served our country so we could enjoy the freedom we have.

A special thanks to the Illinois Veterans' Commission and the Kendall County Historical Preservation Society at Lyon Farm for creating and preserving this document. Thank you to all!

The Kendall County Historic Preservation Commission is comprised of 5 citizen appointees who have special knowledge or training in fields closely related to historic preservation. Commissioners serve without compensation. The Commission is a recommending body to the County Board and has certain powers and authorities designated to the Commission by the County Board. The Commission normally meets the third Monday of each month. Meetings are held in the Court Room of the Historic Court House, 110 W. Madison Street in Yorkville. More information about the Kendall County Historic Preservation Commission can be found at: <https://www.kendallcountyil.gov/departments/planning-building-zoning/historic-preservation>.
